Derek Fisher is a USBCHA Open handler from Idaho who has been training and handling stockdogs for over 20 years. He was awarded the 2001 “Rookie of the Year” award at the USBCHA/ABCA National Finals of which he has twice been a finalist, became the youngest person ever to win the Meeker Classic Sheepdog Trial in 2000, has been a finalist at the Meeker 7 times winning once and earning Reserve once, and has won the Western States Regional three times. Derek is known for his ability to “read” dogs and to tailor his training methods to the individual animal. He is fair and consistent and brings out the best of each dog’s natural ability. Always aiming to set the dog up for success, Derek believes that building confidence is the foundation for any good partnership.
